VERIFICATION STANDARDS IF YOU ARE A CALIFORNIA RESIDENT: Request to Know Categories of Information: If you are requesting categories of personal information, we will verify your identity to a reasonable degree of certainty, meaning we will require at least two data points provided by you to match at least two data points we have on file for you. Request to Know Specific Pieces of Information: If you are requesting specific pieces of personal information, we will verify your identity to a reasonably high degree of certainty, meaning we will require at least three data points provided by you to match at least three data points we have on file for you. We will also require a signed declaration under penalty of perjury that you are the person whose personal information is the subject of this request. Request to Delete: We will determine the standard of verification (reasonable degree of certainty or reasonably high degree of certainty) depending upon the sensitivity of information we have on file and the risk of harm to the consumer posed by unauthorized deletion. Authorized Agents: If the requesting party is someone other than the California resident whose personal information is the subject of this request, we will require written authorization by the California resident demonstrating that the requesting party is authorized to act on behalf of the California resident. We will require the California resident to verify his or her identity directly with us to the degrees of certainty noted above. When the requesting party is the parent or legal guardian of the California resident, or is acting under a valid Power of Attorney or similar assignment of agency, we will allow that party to verify the California resident’s identity.
